

Fundraising Ideas

1

Send an email to family and friends with your page link - This one idea raises 90% of the funds. Tell them who or what you are running or riding for. Make it personal. Let them know that their donation is 100% tax deductible. Not a penny is taken out to cover event costs or overhead- 100% goes to the mission of Huntsman Cancer Institute.

2

Agree to clean your apartment or house for a donation for roommates or family.

3

Ask a restaurant that you frequent to donate a portion of a special night of business to your fundraising. Your part will be to get people to the restaurant that night.

5

Babysit for donations

6

Bake Sale at your job, in your neighborhood, or dorm

4

Ask the company you work for to donate on your behalf

8

Collect soda cans to recycle for money

9

Facebook! This is a great way to let others know about the event as well as ask them to donate

7

Break it down. Your fundraising minimum might seem like a large sum, but if you break it down into smaller increments, it's an easy task to accomplish!

- $750 is asking 15 people to donate $50 or 30 people to donate $25.
- $500 is asking 10 people for $50 donations or 20 people for $25 donations!
- $200 is asking 10 people for $20 or 20 people for $10 donations!

10

Send a fundraising follow-up letter: write a passionate plea. Include pictures and facts on cancer (we can send you these). Show them what you have accomplished (money and training) and what you need still to reach your goal.

11

Go caroling or deliver singing telegrams!

12

Hang a flyer where people know you, like at your place of work or in your residence hall
