

HUNTSMAN

SPORTS•FESTIVAL

Social Media is a fun, fast, and easy way to turn friends, family, colleagues, and neighbors into donors. Think big and use your social media outlets to tap into a whole new network of people beyond just your immediate contacts.

FACEBOOK

- Tell your friends what you are doing and why, and ask them to support you.
- Encourage friends to share your posts.
- ALWAYS include your personal Huntsman 140 or Huntsman 5K fundraising link!
- Set a fundraising goal, and talk about your progress towards your goal.
- Post frequently! Engage your followers- be funny, honest, and real.
- Thank your friends. Type in @ + their name, it will then show a drop down box of names, choose their name to tag them.
- Encourage your friends to participate, join your team or come to your events.
- Photos, photos, photos - let your photos do the talking! Everybody loves to see someone else's life through photos.

TWITTER

- Use hashtags - hashtags allow people to search what others are posting about, use at least one in every post: #HeroForHope #HuntsmanSportsFestival #Huntsman140 #Huntsman5k.
- Tweet about your cause, when you train, and your fundraising successes.
- Retweet, and recognize your donors with @ + their name.
- Post pictures and video of you (and your team).
- ALWAYS include your personal Huntsman 140 or Huntsman 5K fundraising link!

INSTAGRAM

- Edit your profile, enter a description of your fundraising effort.
- Photos, photos, photos - everybody loves to see someone else's life through photos. Link to your Facebook and Twitter accounts.
- Update your URL to link to your personal Huntsman 140 or Huntsman 5K fundraising link!
- Use hashtags - hashtags allow people to search what others are posting about, use at least one in every post: #HeroForHope #HuntsmanSportsFestival #Huntsman140 #Huntsman5k.
- Recognize your donors with @ + their name.
